Maymont is one of Richmond’s greatest treasures. The 100-acre Maymont estate was an extraordinary gift to the Richmond community by James and Sallie Dooley, the millionaire couple who lived there from 1893 to 1925. It opened to the public as a park and museum in 1926 and has delighted countless guests through the decades. Today, the non-profit Maymont Foundation is committed to creating experiences that delight, educate and inspire its visitors.
