HERBS GALORE & MORE RETURNS TO MAYMONT WITH OVER 60 VENDORS ON SATURDAY, APRIL 30

Richmond, Virginia – The popular Herbs Galore & More at Maymont returns on Saturday, April 30, from 8am–3pm, bigger than ever, bringing dozens of plant and gardening vendors from across Central Virginia to the Carriage House Lawn for a one-day-only shopping experience. Plant lovers are invited to bring a wagon to fill with an array of rare and common herbs, annuals, perennials, trees, vegetables, herbal products and garden accessories — everything they need to stock their gardens or window boxes.

Capping off Virginia’s Historic Garden Week, the 37th edition of Herbs Galore & More takes place when Maymont is in bloom, offering gardeners plenty of inspiration, elbow room, musical entertainment and a tempting selection of food trucks to keep fueled up all day. Participating vendors range from Colesville Nursery to small specialty purveyors of rare pepper plants, easy-to-grow succulents and popular native species, as well as hand-crafted accessories and products derived from herbs. Check out the full list of vendors here.

“Maymont in April is an inspiring setting for one of Central Virginia’s favorite plant sales, Herbs Galore & More,” said Parke Richeson, Maymont Executive Director. “We invite plant lovers to roam Maymont’s 100 acres to gather ideas to brighten their own gardens and homes.”

During this special event, paid admission is required for entry into Maymont, and advance registration is recommended. Tickets are $7 per person in advance, and entry is free for Maymont members and children ages 12 and under. Walk-up tickets will be available for $9.
